

The Advisory Council on Quality
Supports for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities and Their Families

Byron Bartley

Who He Is

He is president of Door of Opportunity and has been with the organization for 36 years. He hopes to improve the quality of supports and increase employment for the individuals we support.

Accomplishments

He has been in the field of supporting and advocacy for individuals with developmental disabilities.

