

The Advisory Council on Quality
Supports for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities and Their Families

Sallie Van Curen

Who She Is

Parents Reaching Out/families representative for the ACQ. Assures that families and children are always considered when discussing services for people with developmental disabilities on the council. She is the Executive Director for Parents Reaching Out (PRO) for 20 years. Parents Reaching Out Work Phone 505-247-0192 or 1-800-524-5176.

Accomplishments

Founded Parents Reaching Out with other parents interested in quality services for children with developmental delays or disabilities in 1982. She is a mother of 4 and a grandmother of 8, her daughter Kelli, age 26, has a developmental disability.