New Mexico Department of Health (NMDOH) Announces Phase 2 COVID-19 Vaccine Eligibility

All New Mexicans age 16+ are now eligible for vaccine

April 6, 2021

The New Mexico Department of Health announced today that all New Mexicans 16+ are now eligible for vaccine. This includes:

- Everyone in Phase 1A, 1B, 1C
- Everyone in Phase 2, which includes all New Mexican's aged 16 and older.

The Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine is approved for use in people aged 16 years and older. The Moderna and Johnson & Johnson vaccines are approved for use in adults 18 years and older.

All New Mexicans are encouraged to register for vaccine at <https://cvvaccine.nmhealth.org/>

“By expanding the pool of New Mexicans eligible for vaccine, we can keep the momentum going and ensure that New Mexico remains one of the nation’s vaccination leaders. At the same time, we will redouble our efforts to reach and vaccinate seniors and others in the early phases who have not yet received their shots,” said DOH Secretary Dr. Tracie Collins.
