New Mexico Drug Checking Program Data

NMHealth

November 2023 - October 2024

Number of Samples by Month

439 Total Samples

Samples were collected in multiple locations including Santa Fe, Rio Arriba and Bernalillo counties, 3 samples had no location listed.
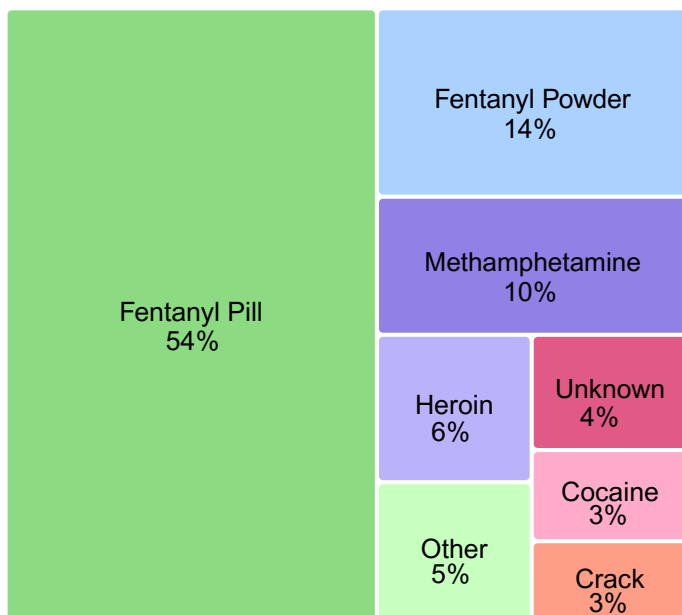

Average: 36.5 per month
Range: 9 (Feb. 2024) - 70 (Aug. 2024)

*October 2024 does not represent a full month (data current to 10/21/2024).

Expected Drug (Sold as)

Over the 12-month period, the most common expected drug was fentanyl, in both powder and pill formulations (n=300).

Fentanyl Pill 54%

Fentanyl Powder 14%

Methamphetamine 10%

Heroin 6%

Unknown 4%

Cocaine 3%

Other 5%

Crack 3%

Other: Oxycodone or Percocet: 1.4%, Ketamine: 1.1%, Xanax: 1.1% MDMA: 0.7%, Benzodiazepine: 0.5%, Marijuana: 0.2%, Ecstasy: 0.2%

What the Samples Contained

Some samples may only contain one substance, while others contain multiple.

No Noteworthy Substances 8%

Heroin 2%

Cocaine 7%

Xylazine 8%

Meth 11%

Fentanyl 67%